SYNOPSIS

This ordinance is sponsored by Council Members Service and Sherman, and amends Chapter 6.12 of the Bloomington Municipal Code entitled "Smoking in Public Places. The amendments carry out the intent of the Council when it adopted Ordinance 93-24 by assuring the gradual elimination of designated smoking areas that continued to exist after November 15, 1993. In so doing, this ordinance reaffirms the prohibition against smoking in bars, clarifies the term "change of ownership," and adds a change of name as an event that causes loss of designated smoking areas in a public place.
